

St Anietus
The Parish Church of St Neot

The Feast of Pentecost

A Breath of Fresh Air
Life Changing Moments

A short series of stories sharing life-changing moments in the lives of:

The Bishop of Truro
The Rt Revd Philip Mountstephen.

Archbishop of the Anglican Diocese of Perth
The Most Reverend Kay Goldsworthy AO.

The Rt Revd Nigel Stock.

This short series during this time of 'lockdown' gives you the opportunity to listen to the stories of others who journey alongside us in faith.

*At this time of the year Christian churches remember from scripture the moment when followers of Jesus Christ received God's Holy Spirit.
If we were able to be in church at this time it would be decorated with the colour of fire and symbols of wind.
Both of these elements are powerful and unpredictable.*

Holy Spirit is like wind. We can't hold onto it We can't pass it on to someone. We can't actually see it, but, we can see the effect that it has.

I have invited those appear below to share their story of the Breath of Fresh Air in their lives, of God's Holy Spirit exposing them to life changing moments.

*I hope you enjoy watching and listening to their story each week at:
<http://www.saintneot.church/index.php>*

The Rt Revd Philip Mountstephen Bishop of Truro

Philip Mounstephen has been Bishop of Truro since late 2018.
Prior to that he led Church Mission Society as well as churches in both London and Paris (but not at the same time).
He is married to Ruth and father of Kitty.
His hobbies include collecting vinyl albums and walking Noggin the dog.

---

The Most Reverend Kay Goldsworthy AO Archbishop of the Anglican Diocese of Perth and Metropolitan of Western Australia

Archbishop Kay was born and called to ministry in the Diocese of Melbourne.
She was ordained Deaconess in 1984 and Deacon in 1986
and served in parishes in Melbourne.
In 1988 she was appointed Chaplain to Perth College and was among the first women in Australia to be ordained to the priesthood by Archbishop Peter Carnley on 7 March 1992.
Kay was appointed Assistant Bishop by Archbishop Roger Herft and was the first woman ordained to the episcopate in Australia on 22 May 2008.

She was elected as the diocesan bishop of the Diocese of Gippsland and installed on 21 March 2015.

In 2017 Kay was appointed an Officer of the Order of Australia (AO) for 'distinguished service to religion through the Anglican Church of Australia, as a pioneer and role model for women, to church administration, and to pastoral care and equality'.

Kay was elected as the Eighth Archbishop of Perth and installed on 10 February 2018 - the first female archbishop in the Anglican Church of Australia.

---

The Rt Revd Nigel Stock

Nigel Stock was ordained in 1976.
After a curacy in the Diocese of Durham he was a parish priest in Papua New Guinea for five years.
He returned to the North East of England, this time to the Diocese of Newcastle where he was incumbent first of Shiremoor and then North Shields and Rural Dean of Tynemouth.

After a short period as a residentiary canon of Durham Cathedral he became suffragan bishop of Stockport in the Diocese of Chester in 2000 and then in 2007 the Bishop of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

In 2013 he moved to Lambeth Palace in support of the current Archbishop of Canterbury as Bishop at Lambeth,
Bishop to the Forces and Bishop for the Falkland Islands.

He retired in September 2017 and lives in Somerset with his wife Carolyne.
They have three sons and four grandchildren.

A further contributor to this series will be announced shortly